Abstract: Join the journey of the first Machine Learning for Data Science class at Cal Poly Humboldt by trying its first product! Discover who is most like you in a fun, interactive survey — a chance to ‘find your people’ and connect with others. It’s a unique opportunity to explore how technology can bring us together. Whether you’re a machine learning enthusiast or just curious, this is the perfect event to engage with both technology and your fellow academics. We can’t wait to share our journey with you. And hey, tell your cat we said “psst psst” — we promise we won’t keep you too long!”
